

Release your Heart,
Renew your Soul, and Awaken to the Nobility of your true, Inner Self

the Constellation

Constellation work is Soul Work. By engaging with the Soul, participants expand their horizon of possibilities, gently moving into resolution those issues that detract from one's psycho-spiritual strength. Conducted in a group environment, participants experience new facets of themselves as they discover their own ability to tap into the "knowing field" of akashic record and the Now.

about the Facilitator:

Among the gems and jewels along Dan Pulido's Spiritual Path are breathtakingly beautiful souls, playing their earthly roles as teachers and fellow students with such graceful authenticity that tears are evoked. One could not ask for better traveling companions or feel more fortunate.

Dan's education includes two years with the Art of Heartful Living Energy Healing Training Program featuring an emphasis on healing the healer to be as clear a vessel as possible, not only for himself, but also in service to others doing their own work of Inner Clarity. Dan is certified as a Systemic Constellation facilitator through the Scott Bader Soul & Mystery Family and Systemic Constellation Facilitator Training Course. His "traditional background" incorporates degrees in both Engineering and Business.

Systemic Constellations reveal inner images, behaviors, challenges, and opportunities that exist beyond our consciousness, and whose hidden dynamics motivate us throughout our lives. Constellation work teaches us about our hearts and humanity, revealing that each of us is a living system embedded within a larger matrix, thus supporting our connection and understanding of others and ourselves. By "placing" group participants as representatives, a mysterious process of movement and healing unfolds, one in which a greater order of love and belonging is restored.
